

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

THE NEW DEVELOPMENT BANK

AND

THE EXPORT-IMPORT BANK OF CHINA

This MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (hereinafter referred to as the “Memorandum”) is made by and between the New Development Bank (hereinafter referred to as “NDB”) and the Export-Import Bank of China (hereinafter referred to as “China Eximbank”). NDB and China Eximbank are hereinafter each separately referred to as a “Party” and jointly referred to as the “Parties”.

WHEREAS, NDB is a multilateral development bank, established by the Governments of the Federative Republic of Brazil, the Russian Federation, the Republic of India, the People’s Republic of China, and the Republic of South Africa (hereinafter jointly referred to as “BRICS”) to mobilize resources for infrastructure and sustainable development projects in BRICS and other emerging market economies and developing countries, complementing the existing efforts of multilateral and regional financial institutions for global growth and development;

WHEREAS, China Eximbank is a state-funded and state-owned policy bank directly under the State Council. With the status of an independent legal entity, China Eximbank’s mission is to support China’s foreign trade, investment and international economic cooperation. It carries out business pursuant to the Articles of Association approved by the State Council of China in November, 2016. China Eximbank plays a crucial role in promoting China’s steady growth and structural adjustment, supporting foreign trade, implementing the “going global” strategy and promoting the sustainable and healthy development of China. Its financial support goes to foreign trade, cross-border investment, the Belt and Road Initiative, international industrial capacity and equipment manufacturing cooperation, science and technology, cultural industry, “going global” endeavors of small and medium enterprises, and the building of an open economy;

WHEREAS, the Parties acknowledge the benefits of cooperation between them for the realization of their shared objectives;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Parties intend, via this Memorandum, to establish a framework for strategic, technical and operational cooperation between them in accordance with the principles and objectives set forth below:

ARTICLE 1 OBJECTIVE

The objective of this Memorandum is to establish a framework of cooperation between the Parties and to promote initiatives in areas of common interest. All the initiative proposed under this Memorandum and any other activities agreed to between the Parties shall be subject to the respective internal objectives, functions, policies and procedures of the Parties.

ARTICLE 2
AREAS AND FORMS OF COOPERATION

1. The Parties may cooperate by various means, in accordance with their respective mandates, policies and strategies, in areas including, but not limited to:
 - a) Early identification, preparation, on-lending, co-financing and other forms of joint participation in financial assistance for infrastructure and sustainable development projects in countries of mutual interest, subject to geographic restrictions of their activities;
 - b) Strengthening exchanges in areas of mutual interest, including, but not limited to green finance, sustainable urban development, social infrastructure, clean transportation, renewable energy, energy efficiency, sustainable water management and sewage treatment;
 - c) Exploring and pursuing opportunities in treasury management cooperation;
 - d) Performing analysis or research on macroeconomics, industries, and other fields of mutual interest;
 - e) Exchange of information and promotion of knowledge-sharing to benefit from each other's experience, resources and expertise. Potential areas of cooperation may include: (i) economic, financial and business information on areas of common interest; (ii) information with respect to processing of potential projects for on-lending, co-financing or other forms of joint participation; (iii) information on the implementation progress, financial performance and development effectiveness of projects supported jointly by the Parties through on-lending, co-financing or other forms of joint participation; and (iv) mitigation and management of risks arising from project financing;
 - f) Providing mutual training and development of staff through collaboration, secondments and staff exchange programs, whenever allowed by each Party's policies and procedures;
 - g) Conducting periodic meetings to explore opportunities for coordination of operations and activities.
2. In the context of such cooperation the Parties will endeavor to share their country and sector expertise and provide appropriate assistance on a reciprocal basis in legal frameworks, operational practices and other fields.

2. The Parties recognize that this Memorandum will be publicized in accordance with their respective policies on disclosure of information.

ARTICLE 7
FURTHER ARRANGEMENTS

In the event that opportunities for activities or projects are identified in the course, or as a result of, the cooperation between the Parties, any such activity or project would need to be reflected in separate arrangements or agreements that may be entered into from time to time by the Parties. The rights and obligations of the Parties under such cooperation, projects and activities shall be provided in the individual arrangements or agreements.

ARTICLE 8
NON-BINDING NATURE

1. This Memorandum only reflects the views and intentions of the Parties to cooperate on a non-exclusive basis, expressed in good faith but without the creation of any legal or financial rights and/or obligations whatsoever or the incurrance of any liability on the part of any of them, except for Article 6. Nor shall any third party obtain any legal benefit from this Memorandum.
2. This Memorandum does not represent an offer, promise, undertaking or commitment on the part of either Party to finance all or part of any activity or project identified in or pursuant to this Memorandum, nor gives any preference right for any agreement, project or transaction each Party intends to enter.
3. Nothing in this Memorandum will limit the right of, or prevent the Parties from entering into memoranda or arrangements with other parties with respect to any activity, project or area of cooperation covered by this Memorandum.

ARTICLE 9
GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. The Parties shall promote cooperation based on the principles of equality, mutual benefit, respect and trust pursuant to the established international banking practice.
2. All collaboration, projects and activities to be pursued under this Memorandum will be subject to the independent decision-making processes of each Party, including their respective applicable policies, procedures, rules, objectives and approval requirements.

IMMUNITIES AND PRIVILEGES

Nothing in this Memorandum will constitute nor be construed as a waiver renunciation or other modification of any of the immunities, privileges and exemptions enjoyed by the Parties under any treaty, international or domestic laws.

ARTICLE 11
DISPUTES SETTLEMENT

Any dispute arising out of, or in connection with, the interpretation or application of any provision contained in this Memorandum shall be settled amicably through consultation.

ARTICLE 12
EFFECTIVENESS, AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

1. This Memorandum shall be duly signed by both Parties and will enter into force on the date of its signature. This Memorandum may be amended in writing by mutual agreement of the Parties.
2. Each Party may terminate this Memorandum upon ninety (90) days' prior written notice to the other Party.
3. This Memorandum will remain in effect for three (3) years from the date of the signature of the Parties and will be automatically renewed for successive three (3) year periods, unless one Party proposes to terminate it in accordance with Article 12.2 above.

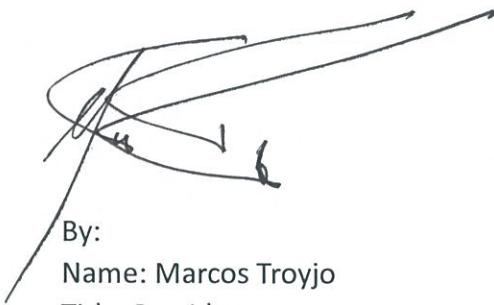

4. The termination of this Memorandum will not affect the completion of any project undertaken by the Parties prior to the termination hereof, or the full execution of any cooperation activity that has not been fully executed at the time of termination, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, NDB and China Eximbank, each acting through its duly authorized representative, have signed this Memorandum in two originals in the English language, one for each Party.

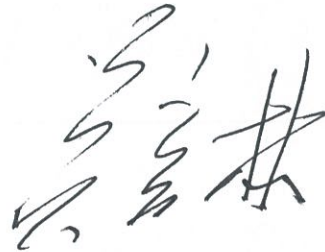

Done at Beijing, People's Republic of China, on this 28th day of May 2021.
